Steve Schuffert

June 18, July 9, July 23,
August 6, August 20

Steve is a self-taught musician who has been playing since the age of 4. He's been a professional musician for more than 35 years and plays the guitar, mandolin, piano, steel guitar, bass, drums and sings. Steve's first break was when he was asked to join the rock group The Godz who had a hit on Kiss' label Casablanca. Steve went on to join A&M recording artist Glen Burtnik, and later signed a songwriting/publishing deal with hit recording artist T. Graham Brown. During that time, Steve's songs were recorded by George Jones, Kenny Rogers, Tommy Castro, Mark Collie and T. Graham Brown. In 1996, Steve's blues rock band signed on with Fortune Records and released eight CDs and played over 800 shows in Europe and the U.S.

Today, Steve continues to write and record new material. In the past year, Steve published a children's book called Patch the Polar Bear and released an acoustic instrumental CD as well as a new blues rock CD called Resonate. For more information, visit steveschuffert.com. Steve's performances at Deer Valley Grocery~Café also include JC DeYoung playing percussion.

Mike Rogers

July 2, July 16, July 30,
August 13, August 27

A jazz and classical-based pianist, Mike has amazing talent and has played at thousands of shows. After leaving Boston and touring Europe, Mike joined up with Park City-based band Sautéed Mushrooms. He has also played with local rock band Muddpuddle and has recently toured with Junior and Transportation. As a solo performer, Mike has been featured at the Dueling Piano Shows all over the country as well as locally at The Tavernacle Social Club. Mike is also a favorite at weddings and special events nationwide.
