

DEER VALLEY®

Animals Among Us

COLORING BOOK

A long time ago in the forest
Where the animals all lived and played,
There came a group of old miners
Who worked underground everyday.

The animals quietly watched them
As they tunneled deep below,
Then come out of the mines every evening
And trudge back home in the snow.

"They're crazy," the Deer said to the Eagle.
The Raccoon and the Bear agreed.
"They work so hard to find treasures,
Yet they never have learned how to ski."

They all put their heads together
And came up with a really great plan
To show the miners how much fun you can have
With the greatest treasure of all - the land.

So Quincy went deep in the forest
To gather dead wood from the trees.
With some measuring, twisting
and breaking,
He came up with long shoes he called skis.

Bucky the Deer took off running.
All they could see was his tail.
He stamped and he stomped
all the snow on the hill
And came up with a really long trail.

Ruby knew a bit about fashion,
And decided the miners looked cold.
So she dug through her lost-and-found clothing
And came up with some outfits quite bold.

Finally Silver, the grand overseer,
Looked the project over with care.
She said, "We are done! Now let's have some fun!"
Off they went, all excited to share.

"They are crazy!" the miners shouted
As the animals skied into view.
But hearing the animals' laughter,
One said, "I want to try, too!"

The animals each showed a miner
How to bundle up and
be safe.
Then they strapped on the skis, made sure it was clear
And set out on their own merry way.

Silver sent them out to great powder,
Making sure they all stayed with the group.
When they were all down safely,
The miners let out a great "Whoopee!"

Help Quincy find his way through the mountain maze to Snow Park Lodge.

Find and circle
the Deer Valley trail names.

Square Deal

Players take turns connecting 2 dots. When a square is completed, that player puts her/his initials in the square and gets another turn. Each square is worth 1 point. The player with the most points wins.

Bucky, Ruby and Quincy seem to have lost some things, can you tell what they are?
