DOWNHILL MOUNTAIN BIKING ABILITY LEVELS

Beginner (BG): New to downhill mountain biking or limited experience. Limited experience on paved or gravel bike trails or green downhill mountain biking trails, which includes smooth surfaces; gentle terrain; flat, rolling terrain; and wide turns on wide trails. Basic or no knowledge of bike braking.

Intermediate (IN): Some experience with downhill mountain biking. Comfortable on most blue downhill mountain biking trails, which includes rougher surfaces (roots and rocks); steeper terrain; longer, sustained descents; and tighter turns on narrower trails. Understands bike braking and gear changing systems.

Advanced (AD): Lots of experience with downhill mountain biking. Comfortable on all blue and some black downhill mountain biking trails, which include narrower, rougher, steeper and tighter terrain; may encounter more frequent drops and jumps; increased speed; and confined, precise moves. Able to adapt more advanced braking, cornering, balancing and gear changing skills.

Expert (EX): Mastery of downhill mountain biking. Able to ride everything and anything. Can adapt to ALL terrain and condition changes.
